

PRIME ReCrUiTS (Paperback)

By Elizabeth Corbin

Trafford Publishing, Canada, 2009. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Martin Sneider Jr., the son of a bovine geneticist, begrudgingly returns to the family cattle farm when his father's failing health ends his post-collegiate world tour. Soon bored and disgusted with farm work he involves himself in illegal means, is arrested and sent to prison. While serving time he meets new friends who share a philosophy: America's youth are a problem and need a directional kick-start. Soon after Marty's release a fatal stroke claims his father. As his prison pals are released he hires them, replacing his father's employees. They institute a means to recruit young adults who would not normally escape their environs or, for that matter, be seeking employment. Their innovative program is a barter arrangement: ninety days of work for room and board, a cash bonus upon completion, and the opportunity to advance within the growing Execon empire. Sneider is praised as a hero and a genius. Two young runaways, Ace and T.J., meet on the bus transporting recruits and immediately become friends. After only a day at the Prime Cuts complex they find themselves in...
