Life expectancy continues to rise. Average life expectancies are 81 years of age for females and 76 years of age for males. Those are just the averages; many people live long past those numbers. Do You Worry About Maintaining Your Standard Of Living In Retirement? Will you have enough money to continue your current lifestyle for 10, 20, 30 years or more after you stop working? A wise Chinese proverb advises Dig your well before you are thirsty. It is one thing to want to work to keep your mind active and your body strong, it is altogether another thing having to work to keep food on the table. Many seniors face the harsh reality of poverty once they quit working. Will You Even Have Enough Money To Retire At All? Have you ever considered; what you want from retirement, when you want to retire, and how you will get there? People spend more time researching their next automobile purchase than they do planning for their own retirement. Retirement planning can seem a daunting task, so people do what they normally do when presented with a challenging task they do not feel up to. They procrastinate and avoid those tasks that they feel unprepared for or they pay someone to do it for them. Who Cares More About Your Money Than You Do? Your Broker? Your broker would rather you didn t read this book. If your broker were the financial wizard he claims to be, he would be trading his own account and not yours. If it weren t for your commissions your broker wouldn t even know your name. Your broker probably drives...
