Alasdair Shaw, United Kingdom, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Tithe by Griffin Carmichael When the world is nothing but a dry husk of itself, a man must choose between a thriving town and keeping on walking. Jacob Heinlein has lost his home, everyone he knew, and hope. He is on a journey to the mythical ocean, an unforgiving sun beating down on him. Delirious and near death, Jacob finds himself in a town with a source of fresh, clean water. Exodus by Alec Hutson The orphaned children of Old Earth are scattered across the solar system, protected from the darkness by god-like beings fashioned from lost technologies. But something has changed. Ancient rules have been broken, and after centuries of isolation one of these beings approaches Mars with overtly hostile intent. First Bonding by Tom Germann Humanity had aimed for the stars and a glorious future in space. The alien s arrival had tarnished that shiny dream. Now the first AIs are fully coming online, even while the government tries to block their use, and humanity is once again looking to the future. The illegally created level 8 AI known as...
