Forgotten Books. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 52 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.1in. Excerpt from The Christian Martyrs: Or, the Conditions of Obedience to the Civil Government; A Discourse; To Which Is Added, a Friendly Letter to Sald Church and Congregation of the Pro-Slavery Influences That Occasioned His Removal. The following Discourse is published by the request, and at the expense, of a portion of the parish in West Bridgewater, Mass. , of which I was, until recently, the minister. It has been delivered in three of the Bridge-waters; originally at the South as a lyceum-lecture, and afterwards, with some changes in its structure and language, and the prefixing of a text, as a religious discourse in the Unitarian Congregational Churches of the West and East. The historical narrative, the authorities, and argument, remain as first written. Though well received abroad, it offended some of my own people; hut, since I no longer stand in the same relation to them, I can hardly think its candid perusal will have the same effect now. The question discussed is one of great importance; and, though the truth seems almost too plain to need more than a simple statement of it, yet the minds of thousands have become so blinded by party zeal, and the sophistries of their political leaders, in support of the Fugitive Slave Law, as not to see it. Knowing the great weight attached to eminent examples and the authority of great names, I adopted this method of presenting the subject, because I felt sensible it would have greater influence than a discussion of the abstract principles involved in it. To occupy common ground with the Apostles of our Lord, with the Christian Martyrs, with the Protestants of the Reformation, and the Puritans of England, and...
